BATTLE'S DIGEST.

The Digest of all the reported law cases in North Carolina, from the earliest period to the present year, is now nearly ready for the binder. It will consist of about 1200 pages, including the table of cases, &c.—The book has been so arranged that it can be bound in one volume, or in two, according to the preference of the purchaser.

The cost of publication has been greater than was expected, in consequence of the book being larger, and it is ascertained that the author cannot afford to charge less than $15 for the volume or volumes of the Law, and $10 for the Equity volume to be paid on or before the delivery of the volumes respectively. The work, though containing much more matter, will cost but little more in currency, than was formerly charged in gold or its equivalent for the aggregate of Iredell's and Jones's Digest.

When a purchaser wants an interleaved copy, he will so state in his order for the work. There will be an additional price of one dollar for such copy.

We have consented to act as agents for Judge Battle in the sale of the Digest, and now solicit immediate orders, accompanied with directions as to how the book shall be bound, &c.

The printing of the Equity volume will be commenced without delay.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative indse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegge Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to war ant a full attendance of pupils, being very accesible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises consist in about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the anger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered) gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

Mr. Holden Under "Duress."

It must be extremely mortifying to every man, who at any time has entertained feelings of political friendship and confidence for Mr. Holden, to witness now his efforts to satisfy the Radicals, that his advocacy of the war and the Confederacy was feigned and hypocritical.—Deeply humiliating it must be to them to know that they ever sustained these friendly and confidential relations to a man who admits, or labors to prove, that, for three whole years, at least, he was an arrant pretender. He says in his last issue:

"It Mr. Badger, C. R. Thomas, the writer of this, and other members of the Convention, who seriously thought of voting against the ordinance, had done so, they would have been hung up by the neck in the Capitol Square."

The above is a slander both upon the dead and the living. We are well aware of the fact, that every Conservative in the Convention was strongly opposed to the passage of Mr. Craige's ordinance. The reason for their opposition was, that it was similar to the secession ordinance of South Carolina, and they were unwilling, even by implication, to give any countenance either to the doctrine of secession or to the hasty, and, as they thought, illegal and unjustifiable course of South Carolina. Yet every one of them believed heartily the doctrines of Mr. Badger's ordinance, and voted for it. Mr. Holden voted for it, readily and promptly, as did every one of them. But after a fair defeat, by the friends of Mr. Craige's ordinance, they were induced, by the general desire for unanimity and the earnest persuasions of those then called secessionists, to vote for Mr. Craige's ordinance. Mr. Badger was the only member present who exhibited such repugnance to Mr. Craige's ordinance as to leave the House or refuse to vote for it on that day. But after a day's reflection he came forward, and, with his usually bland yet determined manner, announced his readiness to vote for it.

We affirm that we never heard of any threat or even ill-tempered language towards any man who would refuse to vote for the ordinance.—When it was thought that Mr. Badger would not sign it, the feeling was only one of regret. Public feeling and sentiment had not then become so intensified, nor has it ever been so in North Carolina, at any time, that the brutc feeling which stirs the mob would have hung any man for his opinions. The best evidence of this is, that, for the past two years, and more, although Mr. Holden has continued to outrage public sentiment, and frequently provoked the deepest hostility to him on account of his course, such has been the power and influence of the law upon our people, that no citizen of the State has given any countenance to the exercise of mob law in his case. Georgians and Wheeler's cavalry are known to have felt hostile to him and would possibly have done him personal injury, but for the efforts of Gov. Vance to prevent it, even after Mr. Holden had become openly hostile to him.

But Mr. Holden's assertion is defamatory of the high character of the late venerable and distinguished Mr. Badger, and other gentlemen who acted with him. Mr. Holden knows that neither Mr. Badger, Mr. Graham, Col. Ferebee, or any other Conservative, acted under duress or threat. If threats or insult had been offered to Mr. Badger, Mr. Graham or others, they would have been flayed alive before they would have signed it. No gibbet on the Capital square could have deterred them one moment from doing what duty and honor prompted them to do. No other member of that Convention, thank Heaven, has ever been recreant enough to allege that they were compelled by fear to vote for or sign the ordinance, except W. W. Holden!!

MR. HOLDEN says that the Editors of the Sentinel will resort to anything to destroy a political opponent. Personally, though Mr. Holden's political course has forfeited our respect entirely, we would not hurt a hair of his head. But we owe it to the peace and prosperity of North Carolina to destroy utterly the remnant of influence left him, until he repent of his sins. In doing this, we shall only find it necessary to speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. If we represent him in all his Chameleon aspects, we shall speak truth and nothing else.

NEXT TUESDAY is the day upon which the hopes of the South depend. If the Convention which assembles in Philadelphia on that day fails in devising means for the restoration of the excluded States, the South, we fear, will probably be at the mercy of the Radicals for an indefinite period.

THE PHILADELPHIA Convention would do well to adopt as its motto a recent utterance upon President Johnson. They should inscribe upon [illegible]nce into the wigwam, "Unless we for[illegible]hall have no future."

State Convention.

Pursuant to previous notice, a Convention of delegates from the several Congressional Districts of the State of North Carolina assembled in the Supreme Court room, in the city of Raleigh, on the 10th. inst., for the purpose of appointing four delegates to represent the State at large in the Philadelphia Convention.

As stated, on yesterday, the Hon. Nathaniel Boyden presided, and Seaton Gales acted as Secretary.

The following delegates were in attendance:

Second District.—Hon. M. E. Manly, W. A. Wright, Esq.

Third District.—Hon. Thos. S. Ashe, Arch'd. McLean, Esq.

Fourth District.—Hon. D. M. Barringer, Hon. Chas. Manly, (proxy for Hon. A. H. Arrington.)

Fifth District.—Seaton Gales, Esq., (proxy for Hon. John A. Gilmer.)

Sixth District.—Hon. N. Boyden, J. H. Wilson, Esq., R. F. Simonton, W. J. Yates, W. R. Myers, W. P. Caldwell, Jno. Wilkes.

Seventh District.—Col. R. W. Pulliam.

Each District was allowed to cast two votes.

As already announced, the Hons. William A. Graham, George Howard, George Davis and R. C. Puryear were elected delegates.

E. J. Hale, Esq., was selected as the alternate of Judge Howard; Geo. W. Mordecai, Esq., as the alternate of Mr. Graham; W. J. Yates, Esq., as the alternate of Mr. Davis; and Hon. W. N. Edwards as the alternate of Mr. Puryear.

The Union Feeling.

Mr. Holden, speaking of the election in Wake, says, "though the vote at Raleigh is small, it nevertheless shows that the Union feeling is still in the ascendant at the seat of government." We are glad to know and believe that the Union feeling is still strong in Wake, and in the whole State. It has not been otherwise. But it will be borne in mind it is not a Holden, or "strait sect," or Radical Union feeling, but a strong feeling for Union, under the Constitution, without further amendment.—Holdenism has received its death blow in old Wake and throughout North Carolina. His advocacy of the Howard amendment, and his entire subjugation to the views and purposes of the Radicals, is the finishing stroke to his influence in North Carolina. Negro suffrage will, and ought to, consign any man to political ignominy and disgrace in North Carolina. He is down, down, fellow citizens. Keep him down, till he learns to feel, and talk, and act, like a true American patriot and friend to his native State and people ought to feel and act. The Howard amendmend blots, out, now and forever, every right of the States. Pass that amendment, and you should at once blot out that clause of the Constitution which claims for the States, as reserved rights, essential to their existence, all rights and powers not expressly granted in the Constitution to the general government. Pass that amendment, and the State governments are at once reduced to mere municipal agencies and creatures of the central Government. Pass that amendment and this government ceases to be a government of the States and of the people, and becomes a centralized despotism, controlled by a Congressional cabal.

And yet, Mr. Holden says "pass that amendment. It is the best you can get." Thus ignoring utterly all his former political teachings and principles! Will you be led by such a teacher? Never, never!

Negroes Drilling.

For some weeks, we learn, a number of negroes, formed into companies, have been drilling in this city; we presume, with the knowledge of the military authorities. The manifest impropriety of this ought to be apparent to every one. The military commandant here cannot be ignorant of the consequences which were about to result from it in Richmond, and which were prevented by the timely order of Gen. Grant, suppressing all such organizations not recognized by law. No one doubts that if an association of white men were to meet regularly for purposes of military drill, without the authority of law, he would suppress it at once. We call upon Gen Robinson, as the military guardian of law and order in the State, to put a stop to this thing. We learn that the colored population, properly belonging to this city, are opposed to this thing and believe there is harm in it.—Strange negroes have congregated here from all parts, and they are the parties principally engaged in this mischief. They are the authors of most of the mischief occurring. Our colored people are generally well-behaved.

Donation of Public Lands.

So far as we know, Gov. Worth is the only Southern Executive who has as yet succeeded in actually obtaining the scrip for lands donated to the several States, under the Congressional act of July, 1862, for the purpose of founding agricultural and mechanic colleges. As the act originally stood, the time within which its provisions could be availed of expired in March last. Gov. Worth, in his message in January, long in advance of any similar action in any of our sister States of the South, promptly brought the matter to the attention of the Legislature. Resolutions were at once passed, accepting the donation, and the Governor went quietly and persistently to work until he finally obtained the scrip.

We regard this as one of the most beneficial acts of Gov. Worth's administration. Both he and Gov. Swain (who acted as his agent in accomplishing this important matter) are entitled to the thanks of our entire people. We trust that great good may result from the application of the fund to be derived from the sale of these lands.

NOTICE TO DELEGATES TO THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.—The National Intelligencer of yesterday says: "We are requested to inform delegates to the National Union Convention, passing through this city, that, upon application to the National Executive Committee, 490 Twelfth street, they will be furnished with cards to enable them to procure commutation tickets to Philadelphia."

The Plot Thickens.

We have charged upon the Radicals the fixed purpose to defeat, by any and all means, the restoration of the Southern States, at least until after the next Presidential election, if not indefinitely. There is a plan on foot to destroy the present civil governments of the Southern States, either by chicanery, or, as a last resort, by force of arms. Every effort is now made to excite the black race against the whites, so as to provoke retaliation upon them, and thus perpetuate the Bureau and military rule over us.—The negroes of the South, at various points, have been encouraged to drill, and, in some cases, are armed, by the direct influence and counsel of the Radicals. In Richmond they became so obstreperous under the encouragement of Radical leaders in that city, that Gen. Grant ordered the drills to be broken up.

We are told that Mr. Holden has declared to persons in this city, that, within five months, the present civil government in this State will be displaced by strong military rule and a Provisional government. Others inform us that Mr. Holden says he will be Provisional Governor of North Carolina again in five months.—Are either of these statements true? It will be remembered that Mr. Holden has been to Washington, and, not withstanding his rejection by the Senate, he comes back a stronger Radical than ever, and is said to be a warm advocate of the breaking up of our Civil government and the restoration of the Provisional and the military. Does he deny this? People of North Carolina, note this! Here is one who has made a life-long profession of love for you, who now, from mere chagrin and disappointment, allies himself with your enemies, to destroy your liberty. We warn you, be on the alert!

They have an affectionate teacher in a high school for young ladies that we wot of. One day a roguish maiden of 16 summers broadly violated some rule of the school. The teacher thought it a plain case for dicipline. He called her to him, argued the case with her with great seriousness and earnestness,—kissed her, and then asked her if she was not sorry. She said she was; and thereupon her sin was forgiven. How great is the power of kindness.—Portland Argus.

They have another teacher in a high school in Boston, who whips with a rod young ladies of "sixteen summers," and who is sustained and re-appointed by the Committee having charge of it. The same Committee is composed of men who are horified that black women, in times past, should ever have been profaned with the birch.

A PREDICTION.—The Hon. Mr. Saltonstall, who presided over the late great Johnson Convention in Boston, predicted that "if the question of restoration was left unsettled another year, another civil war would be precipitated, not between State and State, but in the North between individuals."

He added that the Reconstruction Committee had buried the hopes of patriotic citizens, but the National Union Convention would resurrect them.

WE ARE warranted in saying that all four of the gentlemen, selected to represent the State of North Carolina, at large, in the Philadelphia Convention, will attend. Certificates of their election have been forwarded to Philadelphia by the hands of Mr. Boyden, President of the State Convention.

ACCORDING to Mr. Holden, voting for the amended Constitution, recently submitted to the people of the State, is a test of "loyalty."—What does he say to 350 majority against it in Chatham,—one of the few counties he is accustomed to swear by?

The Threatened Despotism.

Senator Doolittle made a speech at Madison, Wisconsin, on the 1st inst., from which we extract the following telling truths:

"But, fellow citizens, I tell you, it is as certain, in my judgement, as God lives and reigns, that unless the people in this country sustain Andrew Johnson now in his determined effort to sustain this Union, and to arrest the mad career of this wild tendency to centralization, your constitutional liberties are engulphed in a vortex from which they will never rise. [Cheers.] That tendency is despotism, the despotism of a tyrannical caucus, the meanest of all despotisms from the days of the seventy tyrants down."—[Cheers.]

The Augusta Constitutionist says of the statement in the Boutwell report, that Mr. C. C. Clay's averment, that he was not in Canada at the time of Lincoln's assassination "is shown to be a falsehood," that hundreds of respectable citizens of Augusta will swear that Mr. Clay was in that town at the time specified. Ex uno disce omnes.

Mr. Hubbard, of West Virginia, is said to be the only member of Congress who has refused the recent outrageous increase of pay. He declines to rob the people. His course in this matter is honorable to him, and shows that something of the old Virginia manhood still lingers in him.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—There has been a great deal of speculation here as to the probable selection for presiding officer of the Philadelphia Convention. It is now reduced to almost a certainty that the selection will be made from the following: Hon. Thomas Ewing, of Ohio, General Dix, of New York, or Judge Curtis, of Massachusetts.

Mary Ann Hays has been committed to jail for trial in Meadville, Pa., charged with being a "common scold." The Republican says: "She has the reputation of owning the bitterest and most malignant tongue in Meadville."

When Duvall was a candidate for State Judge, in Kentucky, the Lincoln-Stanton policy of managing the election by bayonets was successfully resorted to to defeat him. The people have at last the opportunity of a free vote, and they are avenging their wrongs.

We hear that there are the most brilliant prospects for a full session at the University. There will be at least four hundred students. We think this is rather under the mark.—Charlotteville Chronicle.

It has already taken $712,000 to pay off extra appropriations to the Congressmen who voted themselves $5,000 a year and 17 months back pay.

The rebel General Dick Taylor, of New Orleans, arrived in Washington on Tuesday. He is a delegate to the Philadelphia Convention.

The Radicals and the Future.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—General Sherman, in a speech to the young men of Yale College, has told them that the fighting was not done, and added that the future would present scenes of "woe, want and murder," to which those he had the honor to be engaged in would be mere child's-play. These are remarkable words.—Coming as they do from the hero of the "March to the Sea," the modern Attila, who could boast that he had left a track of desolation "forty miles wide and a thousand long," where the cry of the infant was stilled and the howl of the fox was hushed, they are significant. It were to be wished that he had been more definite.—The words, however, are doubtless as correct as they are remarkable. The destroyer of Columbia has the true instinct of blood. The situation of affairs at the North gives a solution of his meaning. Abolitionism and fanaticism have sown the wind and they well may reap the whirlwind. The recently proposed distribution of arms, the desperate propositions of the Radicals in their caucuses, the very speech of Sherman himself, betoken a diseased state of the body politic, and a state so far advanced in corruption, that the incision of the sword is the only remedy. In the march from Atlanta, Marius has learned the true art (vide his speeches) to conquer; now may he make the application nearer home.

"Fell bird of prey, await thou the plenteous harvest
Which the sword shall give thee on Thermodon."

In family quarrels of this kind among the victors, we, of the South, have no interest.—Verily we have no part in Israel and no lot in Judah. In any contest for power between copperhead and radical, Eastern and Western Yankeedom, it behooves us religiously to refrain. In such a struggle we have nothing to gain.—We have offered up, in a cause we deemed holy, the flower of our youth, the pride of our manhood, and the blackness of desolation marks where our habitations once stood. We have submitted in good faith to the powers that be, but in the struggle that Gen. Sherman foresees as to what shall constitute those powers, we have no further sacrifice to make. Repose is the first demand of an over-wearied people. It is probably well that the South has resolved to be represented in the Philadelphia Convention. It behooves her, so far as consistent with honor, to make every attempt to re-adjust her relations with the general Government. But it is not well to be sanguine of the result. There will be unscrupulous Radicals in the Convention, in the garb of men of peace, and if the fund of corruption at the disposal of the dominant party will produce discord, then will discord divide its counsels. "If the object or the result of the Convention is or will be to embroil the Southern people in the mazes of Northern politics, then it were to be wished, indeed, that the idea were never conceived. Yet it is proper and necessary to send our representatives, as indicative at least of our willingness, not of our confidence. Politics has been a fatal trade to us and ours.—We need repose from political excitement, increase of population, immigration of labor, influx of capital and development of our systems of general education and internal improvements. It is no time for contests for office.—The officers we have and "their adoption tried" it is well to return. To use a popular phrase, it is no time for "swapping horses," (the San Salvadoreans to the contrary notwithstanding.) The time will come when the State may be able to recompense all her deserving men, but at present the Territory needs all her surplus activity diverted into a more profitable channel than that of political agitation.

The tone of the Radical leaders, the enunciations of their press, and the general aspect of matters in the Republic, recall forcibly to mind the earlier scenes of the French Revolution.—Had the French their Camille Desmoulins, their Heberts, their Couthons and St. Justs, these have their Beechers, Garrisons and Stowes without number. Had they a Chaumette, these have a Ben Wade, who can blaspheme without a blush. Had they a triumvirate of blood, these have the men who can clamor for the blood of a whole people and desire the population of the South "guarded in hell with a million of bayonets;" these have a Thad. Stevens,—Robespierre without his integrity,—and a Sumner,—a Danton without his talents. Had the French La Vendee attached to the old regime, these have the South as firmly attached to the old fashioned sentiments of liberty and personal rights of Washington, Jefferson and Madison. The wildest dreams of the wildest Jacobin have been surpassed by the legislative enactments of men who claim to sit in the seats, and possess the spirit, of Ames, Adams, Webster and Benton. If these modern imitators are without the abilities of the men who guided the fiery car of the French Revolution, they are also without their integrity. Bathed to the arms in blood, Robespierre and his companions would scorn to touch even a ring from the finger of their victim. What low political schemes, what record has been made of votes bought and sold, what tricks have been resorted to to enrich political adventurers, the Muse of History, which stands in silence in the Congressional hall, for the honor of America may well refuse the relation.

Affairs can not remain as they are. In mathematics, if a certain power be given, the resistance being known, we can calculate the results. Not so in history. The destinies of nations, as well as individuals, like the sword of Damocles, hang suspended by a single hair. We all know that Helen lost Troy, Lucretia expelled the Tarquins, and that even the cackling of the geese preserved the Capitol. Should not Providence, however, interpose, and should the Fall elections perpetuate, instead of defeating, Radical misrule, then the future is indeed to become a matter of mathematical calculation.—Accidents, events and contingences, as has been said, may falsify the best drawn horoscope; but judging from probabilities—and in regard to all that concerns the future we can only reason as to the probable,—Gen. Sherman has drawn his inference, and so also will every true

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE.

Aug. 9th., 1866.

The members of the Southern Relief Association of St. Louis, Missouri, are making arrangements to get up a Fair in that city for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the South. Their humane efforts have already been so well seconded that the Missouri Republican reports they "are assuming proportions and commanding results considerably beyond the original calculations of the members." Indeed it is now thought to be quite probable that the Fair, which opens next month, "will rival the one that was held in Baltimore a few months ago."

Both of the candidates in Kentucky are supporters of President Johnson,—but Duvall is the Democratic States Rights candidate, while Hobson is supported by the radicals. Duvall's majority promises to be immense. Louisville gave Duvall 1,600 majority.

The New York Herald and the New York Journal of Commerce are maintaining that there has not been a case of Asiatic Cholera in New York City. The health officers say the deaths from it have been more than two hundred per week.

The Postmaster at Washington, D. C., it is understood, is to be removed, and one of the proprietors of the National Intelligencer will be appointed in his place.

Interesting Letter from Hon. M. Blair—General Lee's Position before the War—The Course of Southern Statesmen.

Editor of Evening Post:

My Dear Sir:—A writer in your paper makes severe animadversions on the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, provoked, it seems, by a letter written to him by me. His assuasive tone, the patriotic feeling, the resigned, self-denying devotedness with which he acquiesces in the fortune meted out to himself in common with his fellow-citizens of the South, and would now turn adversity itself to good account by making it redound to a more close, more cordial, and secure Union than that which preceded hostilities, find no toleration. It is amazing, after the horrid struggle in which our kindred of all the States have been decimated, that any one should now be found unwilling to be appeased and to renew fraternal feeling. Mr. Stephens' great crime, in the eye of the Post's contributor, is, that the same spirit now animates him that made that most eloquent of all appeals—his speech to the people of Georgia to arrest the revolutionary conflict at the opening by preventing the secession of Georgia from the Union, and which now pleads for its restoration, having in the interval stood by his State and the South. But is there anything unnatural or unpardonable in this? Do we not see the highest intelligence and noblest sensibility that adorn our nature drawn to the side of those who have fallen into error from honorable motives, although these motives may have been instilled into the community by artful, intriguing, selfish men for selfish ends at war with the public good? Does not every candid mind now perceive, that looks back to the thirty years history of secession, that it was a war of sections that gradually brought the issue and trial of battle, by the ambition of a few political leaders who availed themselves of the difference in the great common interests North and South, which had prevailing sway over the minds of masses in the two sections to, produce the belief that there was an irreconcilable incompatibility between them, rendering separation inevitable? Everybody knows that there were multitudes of enthusiasts on both sides who urged on this quarrel, under the delusion that it was a mere matter of discussion, which would be terminated by peaceable separation, or pass off like other political questions, by a collapse of the inflammatory feeling incited by debate. All such disputants and the great body of the people were taken by surprise on the outbreak of the war, organized by the secret cabal of conspirators. But when the war came, in spite of all appeals of sober-minded patriots to stay its fury—when the thunder of cannon had begun—what could the lovers of peace in either section do but submit to the force with which they were surrounded in the States to which they belonged? General Lee said to my father, when he was sounded by him, at the request of President Lincoln, about taking command of our army against the rebellion, then hanging upon the decision of the Virginia Convention, "Mr. Blair, I look upon secession as anarchy. If I owned the four millions of slaves in the South, I would sacrifice them all to the Union; but how can I draw my sword upon Virginia, my native State?" He could not determine then; said he would consult with his friend, General Scott, and went on the same day to Richmond, probably to arbitrate difficulties; and we see the result. It is hard for a noble mind to tear itself from home, kindred, friends, and native soil, and go into opposite ranks to crush them all. This was the case of Stephens as well as Lee. It was the case of nearly every elevated soul in the South when the Government of the United States, delinquent in all its duties, had failed to make preparation to arrest violence at the outbreak, and cure the phrenzy by binding it in the beginning, and prevent its running on until it became a sectional war, and, in effect, a national war, in its influences on the people of both sections, who were brought to consider the success of the one the subjugation of the other. As the South grew weaker, and began to stagger under the heavy blows of the gigantic North, all her brave spirits rallied to her support. Even the slaves were moved by the natural instinct, for when all the white men, young and old, had left their homes, their women and children to be protected and fed by their superior strength, they would not desert to our conquering army as it marched through the shrinking South, but fled with its panic-stricken families, and gave them aid and comfort. In this did not the blacks prove themselves a loyal people? Would not the white man have proved himself a recreant if, under such circumstances, he had gone over to the invaders? When the affairs of the South were absolutely desperate, and President Lincoln had sent a message inviting peace on terms that Mr. Davis at one time seemed inclined to take, the commissioners appointed by him—Hunter, Stephens, and Campbell—were all anxious to conclude the war on the terms our President proposed. These gentlemen were for Union and peace. Mr. Davis, who had in charge the cause of the South, insisted on independence. Could the commissioners violate the trust which, according to the shape given by events to the cause they represented, and which they were bound to consider that of a whole people, was committed to Mr. Davis? Could they take upon themselves to say it was treason, and commit all that concerned it to the arbitrum of Mr. Lincoln? The aspects to which I thus allude show that the spread and continuance of a war puts a new face on that which, at its inception, was treason. The war upon King Charles I. in its inception was treason. It ceased to be treason long before the English Commonwealth was established. Our war for independence, when the first blood was shed at Lexington, was held in England to be treason. It ceased to be thought so long before our Republic was recognized as a nation. History is full of explanation showing the distinction between violence and wrong proceeding from the heart of a community, and that without such warrant, though springing from the impulse of a multitude. The history of all nations proves also that this singular alchemy, by which great wars convert great crimes into pardonable offences, and sometimes into great blessings, is well understood. That Providence will bring good out of the evil of our unhappy conflict I most sincerely hope; but this most devoutly wished for consummation can never be accomplished if the patriotic, benevolent men, who sought to prevent the severance of the Union and avert the war, and even those who passed through it, and whose only guilt was in defending their homes and families from its calamities, and now seek to restore the Union and perfect concord, are to be deemed unpardonable offenders.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, M. BLAIR.

DAGUERREOTYPE LOST.

MRS. THOMAS BRANCH, late of this city, but now of Richmond, about the time she removed from this city, lost a daguerreotype of an aged friend, which she values very highly. It represents an old man, with white hair, with a pair of spectacles in his hand and pointing to a small clock. The case is worn and has been mended.

She authorizes us to offer TWENTY DOLLARS reward for the recovery of said daguerreotype.

The Editors of the Sentinel will pay the reward, to any one who will deliver them the daguerreotype.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—B. P. Williamson & Co. make sundry attractive announcements, to which we invite attention.

A house and lot, in the N. W. part of the city, is offered for sale. Enquire on the premises.

It will be perceived, by reference to the advertisement of B. P. Williamson & Co., headed "Important to Cotton Planters," that they are authorized to exchange one pound of cotton for one pound of bacon, instead of "12½ lbs. of cotton for 10 lbs. of bacon," as heretofore announced.

E. Wilkes, Engineer and Superintendent of the N. C. R. R., announces the through Freight air line via that road and its connecting lines. The arrangement is a most striking one and holds out splendid inducements to shippers and others.

That valuable "institution," Turner's Almanac, will be ready about the 1st. of September. Send in your orders, at once, to Branson & Farrar.

THE EXERCISES AT JONES' SPRINGS.—A correspondent of the Petersburg Index furnishes an interesting account of the exercises at Jones' Sulphur Springs, in Warren, on the 8th inst., upon the occasion of laying the corner-stone of the monument to the memory of Miss Annie C. Lee, daughter of Gen. Lee, who died at that place in October, 1862.

About one thousand persons were in attendance,—among whom were Gens. Custis and W. H. F. Lee, sons of the great chieftain, Gen. Cox, of this city, Gen. Wharton, of Mississippi, Cols. Cheek, Jones and Green, a number of prominent gentlemen from Petersburg, and numerous citizens of Warren, Franklin, Nash and Granville Counties

We condense from the Index:

"The monument is of light granite, quarried in Warren, and consists of base, sub-base, obelisk, cap and urn, and inscribed upon it is the following record:

On the front, which looks towards the west—

ANNIE C. LEE,
daughter of
GENERAL R. E. LEE,
and
MARY CUSTIS LEE.

The south side—

Born at Arlington,
June 18th, 1839.
and died
At the White Sulphur
Springs,
Warren County, N. C.,
Oct. 20*th*. 1862.

On the north side are the last lines of a favorite hymn which the young lady asked for when dying:

"Perfect and true are all His ways,
Whom Heaven adores and earth obeys."

The East side does not, but I think should, contain a statement of the fact that the citizens of Warren erected it.

Col. Wharton J. Green, of Warren, was Chief Marshal, and at eleven o'clock led the cortege from the Springs to the burial ground, a distance of about a mile.

A stand was erected near the monument, on which I discerned J. Barron Hope, Rev. Dr. Hodges, of Warrenton, Rev. T. H. Pritchard, of Petersburg, and Rev. J. B. Solomon, who now resides in this county.

The services were opened by reading of the Scriptures and prayer by Rev. Dr. Hodges, after which Mr. Hope recited a poem of two hundred and seventy-five lines.

As was to be expected from his reputation, Mr. Hope gave us a beautiful and appropriate production, which was well rendered. As your readers can judge of its merits for themselves, when it is published, I will proceed to state that, after Mr. Crowder had placed the urn upon the monument and wreathed it in flowers, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Solomon, and the crowd, perhaps a thousand, dispersed to discuss the good cheer which the neighborhood had provided for them."

The following is Gen. Lee's letter to the Ladies' Committee of Invitation, regretting his inability to be present on the occasion:

ROCKBRIDGE BATHS, 25th July, 1866.

LADIES:—I have read with deep emotion your letter of the 17th instant, inviting myself and family to witness the erection of a monument over the remains of my daughter, at Warren White Sulphur Springs, on the 8th of next month.

I do not know how to express to you my thanks for your great kindness to her while living, and for your affectionate remembrance of her since dead.

My gratitude for your attention and consideration will continue through life, and my prayers will be daily offered to the throne of the most High for His boundless blessings upon you.

I have always cherished the intention of visiting the tomb of her who never gave me aught but pleasure; but to afford me the satisfaction which I crave, it must be attended with more privacy than I can hope for on the occasion you propose.

But there are more controlling considerations which will prevent my being present. Her mother, who for years has been afflicted with a painful disease, which has reduced her to a state of helplessness, is this far on her way to the Mineral Springs, which are considered the best calculated to afford her relief. My attendance is necessary to her in her journey, and the few weeks I have now at my disposal is the only time which can be devoted to this purpose.

But though absent in person, my heart will be with you, and my sorrow and devotions will be mingled with yours.

I hope my eldest sons and daughter may be able to be present with you, but as they are distant from me, I cannot tell under what circumstances your invitation may find them. I feel certain, however, that nothing but necessity will prevent their attendance.

I enclose, according to your request, the date of my daughter's birth, and the inscription proposed for the monument over her tomb. The latter are the last lines of the hymn which she asked for just before her death.

I am, with great respect,
Your obedient servant,
R. E. LEE.

SEIZURE OF TOBACCO, &c.—The Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, for the New Hanover District, on Thursday, proceeded to the sales rooms of Wilmington merchants and seized a quantity of Tobacco, found unstamped, and a quantity of liquor and other articles which were also found without the prescribed stamp. In instances where property was thus seized, a receipt was given specifying the quantity of the article, and setting forth that the seizure was made for violation of the United States Internal Revenue Law.

ATLANTIC, TENNESSEE AND OHIO R. R.—The Stockholders of this Road met in Charlotte yesterday. Col. Gen. Barringer, Col. Sharp, and Mr. M. White, of Iredell, were elected Directors. It was resolved, as soon as $75,000 can be raised, to put the entire track under contract.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Mr. Davis's Health Failing---General Condition of the Prisoner---Mrs. Davis, &c., &c.

[Correspondence of the New York World]

FORTRESS MONROE, Va., August 8.

Mr. O'Conor's late visit down here, during the past week, has demonstrated one thing, which is, that Mr. Davis has failed in health considerably since his visit previous to the one I speak of. This fact I have ascertained from a source as trustworthy as possible, and is next to the "powers that be." Mr. O'Conor has himself expressed as much to a gentleman who exercises a great deal of influence here. Persons who are in the habit of seeing the great State prisoner daily in his walks from Carroll Hall to the casement occupied by his family, and then on his rambles around the fort, cannot notice any material change from his every day appearance, but an observing eye, like that of Mr. O'Conor, can detect any and every alteration taking place in the mien of his illustrious client, and his observation I would sooner trust than that of many doctors.

It is doubtless owing to mental grievances that Mr. Davis's health is on the decline. Save close confinement at Carroll Hall, between tattoo and reveille, he is allowed the freedom of the fort, and is untrammeled in his rambles and avocations. Yet Mr. Davis's health is declining, and if he remains a prisoner much longer the consequences may prove serious, and the vengeance of Secretary of War Stanton conquer its victim.

Few persons would have survived the trials, anxieties, and suffering this one man has undergone during the fourteen months of his imprisonment, and only such a superior spirit as that of Mr. Davis, whose mental capacity outweighs his physical prowess, is equal to such a task, and if he is broken down physically, mentally he is the same as ever, and it is only owing to this fact that he holds out.

Pride may be said to be one of the stimulants buoying up the spirits of Mr. Davis.—Should he be released now, or hear suddenly of his pardon, the re action might prove more fatal than the first flush of misery. His anguish on being consigned to a dungeon was deep and lasting. The agony, however, partially relieved itself, and the heart, while it suffered temporarily, was not entirely disturbed. Having in a measure become resigned to his fate now, and expecting nought but a malignant prosecution, the exertions of his friends in procuring a release, or even a pardon, may prove successful. It is the sudden announcement of such an event to him which may prove fatal, and no matter what news there may be concerning him, his friends should be careful not to impart it too suddenly. A man of his years cannot undergo as much as one younger, and it takes but little to "snap a bent twig in twain."

Mrs. Davis devotes all her time to her husband. She hardly goes out except in his company about the fort. Her children are frequently sent to Norfolk, merely, however, for the pleasant saif such a trip invites. As a general rily bound to remain at home more then she otherwise might. Still she seems contented. Her being allowed to be in her husband's company fourteen out of the twenty-four hours satisfies her. It would be folly to say she is happy, (how can that be possible?) but she is satisfied and thankful for such benefits as she receiver.

HON. THOS. EWING ON THE SITUATION.—The National Intelligencer contains a long and able letter from the Hon. Thomas Ewing. Mr. Ewing was a member of General Harrison's Cabinet, and is well known throughout the country as an enlightened statesman. He reviews the policy of the Radicals, and proves that they are violating the Constitution and threatening the country with ruin.

The letter contains arguments to which we cannot subscribe, but they are powerful as against the Radicals, for he agrees with them in regarding this as a consolidated national government. He boldly declares that the laws passed over the President's veto are unconstitutional, and counsels the Republicans to repeal the Civil Rights act, the Freedmen's Bureau act, &c.—We trust that this letter will have a good effect upon the Northern people.

In the course of his letter Mr. Ewing says:

"It is the remark of a writer who lived through the French Revolution, who reasoned sagely, and who observed much, 'that the remedy for popular passions is to be found, not in despotism or arbitrary infliction, but in the assured sovereignty of the law. I concur in this opinion."

Mr. EWING has been a Republican; and near the close of his letter he says:

"My wish is that the Republican party, very many of whose members I highly respect, may return to the path of constitutional rectitude, and walking in that path, I wish them a long and successful administration of their appropriate sphere in the affairs of government; but if they and the Constitution and the Union cannot exist together, I as earnestly desire their speedy and final overthrow."

BUCKEYE SULKY PLOW.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address,

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

CHILLS, FEVER AND AGUE

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St., New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

☞ Its Effect is Miraculous! ☜

IT is an entirely new scientific discovery combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom.

We have such confidence in its merits, and are so sure it will do all we claim for it that we offer if it is a Sicilian Hair Renewer does not give satisfaction in all cases when used in strict accordance with our instructions.

$1,000 REWARD

HALL'S

Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer

has proved itself to be the most perfect preparation for the Hair ever offered to the public.

It is a vegetable compound, and contains no injurious properties whatever.

It is not a Dye, it strikes at the roots and fills the glands with new life and coloring matter.

It will restore Gray Hair to its original Color.

It will keep the Hair from falling out.

It cleanses the scalp, and makes the Hair soft, lustrous and silken.

It is a splendid Hair-Dressing.

No person old or young, should fail to use it.

It is recommended and used by the first Medical authority.

SOUTHERN FERTILIZING

COMPANY,

Richmond Va,

Colonel William Gilham,

(late Professor of Chemistry at the Virginia Military Institute,)

CHEMIST AND SUPERINTENDENT.

This COMPANY having placed in their works the most modern and approved MACHINERY, will be prepared on the FIRST OF AUGUST to furnish FERTILIZERS on an extensive scale, compounded under the immediate supervision of the eminent chemist named above.

They propose to offer for sale:

PURE PERUVIAN GUANO,

(warranted free from admixture,) ground and pulverized; thus avoiding for the farmer the necessity of breaking up the lumps, and not only saving him from loss by waste, but securing him uniformity and regularity in its application.

MANIPULATED GUANO

composed of pure Peruvian and Phosphatic Guano in equal proportions, finely ground and thoroughly incorporated.

OLD DOMINION GUANO, composed of Peruvian and Phosphatic Guano, in combination with other ingredients, and containing four per cent. of ammonia.

PLASTER,

finely ground from the best Nova Scotia lump. None will be used not strictly adapted to agricultural purposes.

BONE DUST.

A large quantity of bones having been purchased, a constant supply of pure Bone Dust will be kept on hand.

This company commends itself to the patronage of the Southern agricultural community as a HOME INSTITUTION, under the management of one practically acquainted with Southern lands, and thoroughly competent to decide upon the best agents for their permanent improvement. Under his control the public have assurance that nothing will be offered them that is not of real and intrinsic value.

The undersigned, composing the above company, offer their personal guarantee, in connection with Colonel Gilham, that their Fertilizers shall be as represented.

Liberal arrangements will be made with commission merchants and grocers, who are invited to confer with the President (post office box 974.)

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON, Superintendent Hillsborough Military Academy, Hillsborough N. C.
